

shame

This is the last ditch I want to crawl out of
but we all need somewhere to stay If you could see things from down here you'd know why it's better to just look away

after everyone's long gone
shame
you stay
oh shame
you're still holding my hand but shame
you stain

I've kept my friends close but you're still the closer you took all my faith
took my name
This is my last ditch
attempt to escape you
'cause I've dug up nothing but...

you stay
oh shame
you're still holding my hand
but shame

time after time
after cycles and spirals and finding the floor just to crash through it once more you'd think we'd be over but maybe we're soul mates or maybe I just hate to leave you for someone better

you stay
oh shame
but shame
you stain
